

THREE RIVERS

WG Pitts Director of Design John Powers, formerly of Powers & Merritt, is leading the land planning team. The development is projected to create a $700 million economic impact to Nassau County.

“With homes, services and other commercial development, Three Rivers will generate numerous economic benefits to Nassau County,” said WG Pitts President Will Pitts. “We are pleased to provide a leading role in bringing this state-of-the-art community to life.”

For more information, visit www.wgpitts.com.

WG Pitts is an award-winning General Contracting, Architecture and Construction Management firm. The company provides the following facilities services: architecture, engineering management, construction, commercial interiors, furniture and equipment; both domestically and internationally.

Founded in 1996, WG Pitts’ success is primarily a result of implementing a Team-Built™ approach to each project. The company integrates competencies to provide solutions that fit each customer and situation, bringing a culture of responsibility, urgency and excellence to each task.

The company has established a reputation for providing unsurpassed customer service, bringing innovative ideas to the table, and adding value to clients by way of expertise and experience. WG Pitts is an award-winning, VA certified, Service-Disabled Veteran-Owned Small Business (SDVOSB) firm.

For more information, please visit www.wgpitts.com or call 904-260-3499 (toll free: 1-877-WG PITTS)